VOL. CXXXIV— No. 49. ALEXANDRIA, VIRGINIA. TUESDAY, FEBRUARY 26, 1918 PRICE ONE CENT.

EARLY MORNING STORM

High Wind, Rain, Thunder and Lightning Awake Many People About Two O'clock this A. M.

The southeast wind which had prevailed yesterday and during the early part of last night changed to the west and northwest about two o'clock this morning, and for a time "blew great guns," bringing heavy showers of rain, which were accompanied by thunder and lightning. The fierce blasts soon diminished in force, however, but an hour or two later broke out again with renewed vigor and the flashes came heavy and frequent until after daybreak.

During the prevalence of the high wind an electric light pole on Washington street extended was blown down, and branches were twisted from trees in nearly every section of the city. In some cases trees, which had long been hollow, and dead, were blown over. The roof of a house on north Columbus street was carried away and the smokestack of the Banner Laundry was blown down.

There is reason to believe that a storm of greater force prevailed somewhere southeast of this city during the night, and that Alexandria was struck by the "tail-end" of the disturbance. The temperature during the early part of thee night was rather too high for comfort, but after the northwest wind had set in cooler conditions prevailed.

WRECK OF THE FLORIZEL.

Only 44 Rescued From the Ill-Fated Steamer with Death List Placed at 102.

St. Johns, Feb. 26.—Fourty-four persons were rescued from the wreckage of the Red Cross liner Florizel, which was pounded to pieces on the rocks off Cape Race in the storm Sunday.

The death list now stands at 102. The last hope for saving the lives of more persons aboard the ship was given up tonight at the offices of the Red Cross Line. The saved include seventeen members of the crew.

Among those rescued was Capt. William J. Martin, who was in command of the vessel when she sailed from here. He was unable to talk only a very little and gave in but a few sentences the story of the disaster.

He said that he had not realized the strength of the storm when the Florizel put to sea. Knowing the danger around Cape Race, he had attempted to round the cape, giving a wide berth to the danger zone which has taken a heavy toll in lives. Apparently he had misjudged his position, being too far north when the vessel was struck by the storm and was driven ashore on the rocks.

The master of the ship said that he knew it would be futile to attempt to leave the ship while the storm was at its height and gave orders that none of the lifeboats be lowered until daylight.

He had hoped that by that time the storm would have subsided enough for such an attempt. He sent a call for help by wireless and a short message telling of the wreck. This message, which was picked up here, was broken. Evidently the fire which swept the forecastle had eaten its way into the wireless room by that time.

SHOOTS MAN AND HERSELF.

Miss Reid Dying in Shreveport Hospital.

Shreveport, La., Feb. 26.—Miss Levinas Reid, whose mother is said to live in Washington, D. C., is dying in Charity Hospital here as a result of a self-inflicted wound. K. C. McCollum, an express company employe, has a bullet hole through his body and a flesh wound in the hand.

Miss Reid fired two shots at McCollum, and then turned the weapon on herself Sunday night after a quarrel.

STEALING DOOR MATS

Negro Woman Sent to the Workhouse For Ninety Days for Receiving Articles Brought Her By Son.

There were two cases before the Police Court this morning, that of Louisa Johnson, colored, who was charged with receiving door mats which her nine-year-old son had stolen. Yesterday a resident of North Washington street notified the police that a mat had been stolen from his front door, also an automobile tire. The officers recovered the mat at the house of the boy's mother, where they found others which had from time to time been stolen in different sections of the city. They found the automobile tire in a junk shop where it had been sold by the boy. The mother and boy were sent to the workhouse for ninety days.

The other case before the court was that of a young negro man named Frank Jackson, who like the famous tramp, declared "He never worked nor never will." According to the evidence of the officers, Jackson worked for four days for the Virginia Shipbuilding Corporation, but quit abruptly and refused to return to his occupation. It was also alleged that he made his boast that he never worked and never intended to toil. He was sent to jail for thirty days under the vagrant act. There is still a corporal's guard of able-bodied whites and blacks in Alexandria who manage to eke out an existence without employment, although laborers are in demand. The police are endeavoring to round up this class, and, if brought before the Police Court, they will be given their choice—to accept some position at once, or serve a term in jail subject to work on the public roads.

JAPAN WILL TAKE HAND.

Preparations for Campaign in Siberia are Reported to Now be Under Way.

The Japanese, according to reliable authority, intend to take action in Siberia at an early date, and there are evidences that the Japanese have long been preparing to carry out this move.

The situation in Siberia is considered extremely grave owing to the inability of the Cossack Gen. Sennenoff, head of the antibolshevik movement in that vast territory, to secure allied support, for which he has appealed to the Japanese.

Gen. Sennenoff's movement now is officially recognized, and a general committee has been formed at Harbin, which will act as a general staff, divided into three departments—financial, military and administrative. The Russian consul, M. Popoff, has been appointed chairman of the committee.

Two thousand Germans have been armed and are drilling at Irkutsk, capital of the government of Irkutsk in eastern Siberia, and according to an official report received from a foreign consul, the Germans are making all preparations to bring much larger forces there.

TWELVE PERSONS KILLED.

Frightful Accident on Southern Railway in South Carolina Yesterday Afternoon.

Twelve persons were killed and thirty-nine injured, two of them seriously, in a rear end collision on the Southern Railway at Fornance, S. C., yesterday afternoon.

Train No. 42, running from Asheville to Columbia, S. C., crashed into train No. 18, which was just getting under way after stopping to repair an air hose.

The rear coach on No. 18 was telescoped and several other coaches wrecked when the speeding locomotive crashed into them.

Train No. 18, running from Greenville to Columbia, was held up at Fornance with a bursted air hose. The broken hose was repaired and the flagman who had been sent back along the track to prevent just what happened was called in.

Before No. 18 could get under way, however, train No. 42 rounded a curve and, coming at a high rate of speed, crashed into the rear of No. 18, telescoping the rear coach and damaging others.

Old Dominion Commandery.

There will be a called conclave of Old Dominion Commandery No. 11 held in the asylum at 7:30 p. m., Tuesday, Feb. 26, 1918. Work—Red Cross. By order of

Alexandria City and Suburbs

The three-story brick dwelling at 117 South Fairfax street and the office building next door north, has been sold by Mrs. A. G. Uhler to Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Rawlett.

A slight change of time in the date of sailing for steamers of this line has been made, both the Northland and Southland leaving Alexandria at 7:00 p. m., half an hour earlier than formerly.

The Woman's missionary society of the Methodist Church South will meet tomorrow afternoon (Wednesday) at 2 o'clock. The ladies are requested to bring their pledge cards and also their Easter offerings for the mission school.

The funeral of George H. Troth, merchant and potmaster at Accotink for thirty years or more and who was well known in this city, was held today at one o'clock at his late home in Accotink. Of his immediate family he is survived by one daughter, Miss Annie, and a son, George H. Troth, Jr., of Round Hill, Va. The Rev. E. W. Mellichampe, rector of Pohick church, officiated at the funeral services.

While on their way home from Baltimore to this city yesterday afternoon about 2 o'clock, the automobile in which Dr. J. Hayes and wife were riding struck a telephone pole. Mrs. Hayes was considerably injured by being cut across her face and nose. She was taken to the Franklin Hospital in Baltimore. Dr. Hayes, who was driving the machine, also sustained injuries to his ankles but not of a serious nature, it is reported. The accident happened about ten miles from Baltimore.

The young people of Bethel congregation will give an entertainment this evening in the Jewish synagogue, 206 North Washington street, in honor of the Jewish feast of Purim which is celebrated today by the good people of that religious faith. Purim, according to the scriptural book of Esther, wherein the tale is narrated, means "lots," lots having been cast before Haman, vizier of Persia, for the purpose of determining the day most auspicious for the consummation of his plan of exterminating all the Jews dwelling in the land. But the day was fatal only to Haman's plans and to Haman himself, for through a chain of remarkable happenings the Jews were delivered from their imminent peril and the doom he had decreed for them fell on their enemy himself. From that year to the present time, Jews all over the world have celebrated the anniversary of the day on which the wondrous deliverance had occurred.

The Parent-Teachers' Association will hold its regular monthly meeting tomorrow afternoon at half-past 3 o'clock in the Lee school building.

James W. Gaines has sold to Hugo Herfuth, Jr., and Herbert A. Stewart a house on the west side of Washington street, between Cameron and Queen.

Allen Cogan, son of John Cogan, of this city, has been summoned to the University of Virginia Base Hospital 41 for instruction preparatory to being sent to Camp Sevier, Greenville, S. C.

William H. Washington, of this city, who is now stationed with other men from Alexandria at Camp Lee, Va., desires the Gazette to express his thanks to the Alexandria Red Cross for a sweater, muffler and wristlets which were sent to him.

The work of constructing a branch from the Washington and Southern railroad from Accotink to the military camp at Belvoir, a distance of about seven miles was begun yesterday with a large force of workmen. After reaching the camp, it is stated, the road will be extended along the side of the camp grounds practically its entire length, which will make the road upwards of twelve miles long in all. It will be used mainly for the delivery of building materials and supplies to the camp, according to reports in circulation in Alexandria today. Quite a large number of the workmen employed in building the line are trying to arrange for boarding places in this city.

The clever little farce "If I only had a Million," recently enacted by St. Mary's dramatic club, is to be presented again. The play was so well received that the club has been prevailed upon to give another performance on Tuesday evening of next week, March 5th, at Lyceum Hall. The proceeds will be for the benefit of the United Daughters of the Confederacy war relief work. Owing to the urgent demand for money with which to carry on the relief work the play will be given during Lent, but, to all loyal Americans, the fact that America is at war, will furnish a good and sufficient reason for the production of the play at this time. No real patriot should, and it is not believed that any will, object to the doing of everything possible to care for the men "over there," and there is the assurance that every effort in this direction which is done today places the work of tomorrow upon a more secure foundation.

A little son of David Davis was struck by an automobile at Cameron and Washington streets about noon today, knocked down and bruised. The machine was in charge of Harvey Robinson. The accident is said to have been unavoidable.

The Cameron Club will have the third of its series of patriotic talks on Thursday evening of this week, at 8 o'clock at the residence of Dr. and Mrs. Geo. T. Klipstein on Prince street. It will be given by Mr. Reese, who has served with the English army both on the fields of France and in Mesopotamia. He is a forceful, convincing speaker who has ability to bring his experiences vividly before his audience. He will give the viewpoint of the soldier in action and as Alexandria is so soon to be a camp city, it is well for its people to understand their needs and desires from every angle and so plan their hospitality that it may be a strengthening force to help them face their trials "over there."

With a view of building the membership of the Lyceum, a mass meeting of the members of the congregation of St. Mary's Catholic church was held last night in its hall and a number of speakers made addresses on the benefits to be derived from such an organization. M. J. McFarland, president, presided and at the conclusion of the meeting a woman's branch was formed and the men held a smoker. During the evening addresses were made by Rev. Fathers Fitzpatrick and Cronin, who have just concluded a week's mission at St. Mary's church, Rev. Louis Smet, pastor of that church and Rev. L. F. Kelly, assistant pastor. A. D. Montier, who repaired and decorated the hall also made a short address. The women decided to arrange for a basketball team and for a dance, the latter to be given shortly after Easter together with a series of entertainments. During the evening musical numbers were given by Miss Ella Hill and Prof. Carlton A. Padgett. Rev. Father Smet spoke on the work done incident to the remodeling of the Lyceum which is now one of the most attractive halls of its character in the city. At the smoker several applications for membership were received and it is generally believed that the meeting held last night will result in a largely increased membership for that organization. The men connected with the Lyceum have also planned a series of entertainments which will be staged shortly after Easter.

SERIOUSLY AT ODDS.

Friendly Relations Between Vienna and Berlin in Danger.

Amsterdam, Feb. 25.—The German papers comment on the relations between Germany and Austria, which apparently are becoming quite strained. The Tages Zeitung contrasts the abuse of Germany in Austria in connection with the Ukrainian treaty with the praise bestowed on Count Czernin, the Austro-Hungarian foreign minister. The paper tries to discover the motives of the Vienna official news agency in publishing the Polish manifesto reflecting upon Germany, which has given great offense and comes to the conclusion that the Austrian censorship by its attitude all along has failed to show appreciation of Germany's interest, adding:

"It is time that we point out most emphatically how such incidents are endangering the friendly relations between the two countries."

The Hamburger Nachrichten says: "The present attitude of certain Austrian newspapers is decidedly not calculated to make the feeling in Germany toward Austria any more friendly."

"Star of the Disciple."

Wm. S. Hart will be seen in the "Star of the Disciple" at the Grand theatre tonight. Renewed popularity of western film plays, due to Triangle enterprise has brought about the return of the "drama of the plains" and of the heroes and bad men of a decade ago. Old playgoers will remember Hart as the Messala of "Ben Hur."

RIGHT TO BE TESTED.

Railroad Agent Is Fined For Interfering With Policemen.

With the understanding that the validity of the search warrants which police officers are now using in opening the baggage of travelers would be tested in the Hustings Court, a fine of $10 was placed on P. S. Butterworth, agent of the Richmond, Fredericksburg and Potomac Railroad Company, at Elba Station, when he was arraigned in Police Court Saturday on the charge of interfering with officers who attempted to execute a search warrant at the station.

Agent Butterworth refused to allow Patrolmen Allen and Frayser to open baggage which was stored in his baggage-room. The railroad authorities will contend that the name of the owner of the baggage must be inserted in the warrant in order to complete its validity, and that indiscriminate searching of travelers' baggage is illegal unless such description of the owner and of the baggage is specifically set out in the warrant.

George Walsh Tonight.

If there is any one in Alexandria who has a pain or an ache or feels depressed he should see George Walsh in "Jack Spurlock—Prodigal" which will be shown at the Richmond tonight. This new photoplay is one of the funniest that has been seen here in a long time. It is adopted from the story written by George Horace Lorimer, editor of the Saturday Evening Post, and printed serially in that publication.

YOUNG LADY SHOT.

Accidental Discharge of a Pistol Leaves Serious Wound.

Miss Virginia Douglas, of Burnleys, was brought to the Martha Jefferson Sanatorium in Charlottesville for surgical treatment Sunday afternoon, following a painful injury from being accidentally shot by a young man named E. C. Munday, at whose home she was visiting.

A bullet was fired from a 38 caliber revolver through the fleshy part of her left thigh, and lodged in the right, just above the knee. Dr. J. Fulton Williams was called in and extracted the ball and the unfortunate young lady is reported as resting quietly.

The shooting was due to the youth having accidentally discharged the pistol as he was examining same, with the result stated, Miss Douglas having been standing near him at the time.

10,000 Perish in Quake.

Disturbances of February 16 and 17 in Amoy Also Destroyed Several Villages.

Amoy, China, Feb. 26.—Nearly 10,000 persons lost their lives as a result of the recent earthquake in the Amoy hinterland, according to the latest reports from Swatow.

Washington, Feb. 26.—Swatow is a treaty port of China, province of Kwangtaung, 225 miles northeast of Canton. It is the center of the sugar industry and is a town of some 40,000.

A series of earthquakes on February 16 and 17 caused extensive damage over a considerable area of Kwangtung.

DEFENSE OF PETROGRAD

Red Guards and Lettish Riflemen Recapture Pskoff—Call to Arms Sounded—All Urged to Fight.

Petrograd, Feb. 26.—Despite acceptance of German imposed peace, mobilization and hurried preparations for the defense of Petrograd continue.

Small German detachments are reported moving toward Petrograd from Pskoff (162 miles southwest of Petrograd). Workmen's battalions were quickly organized and several are moving in the direction of Pskoff.

As soon as the news of the capture of Pskoff was received here the factory whistles called the workmen to arms. Their spirit is belligerent, and they are determined to die for the revolution.

The defense committee issued a proclamation declaring the revolutionary capital is in the gravest danger, and urging all to fight and die for the revolution.

After the capture of Pskoff, the Germans advanced several stations. The Russians then began a counter offensive and the city changed hands several times. The remaining Russian workmen's battalions are continuously leaving for Pskoff.

Red Guards and Lettish riflemen finally recaptured the Pskoff postoffice, battling in the streets with German detachments which had been cut off from the main lines.

Reval was stubbornly defended before it was captured.

Washington, Feb. 26.—The American government is striving to the utmost to stir the Russians to defense of their nation against the invading Teuton.

Aided by radicals in this country, the Government is continuing its educational campaign in Russia. President Wilson himself is behind the new move—a step to blaze the right trail for the Slav masses, no matter what peace steps Lenine and Tratzky take.

ACCEPT REVISION OF CODE.

Railway Crossing Provision Wins as Approved by the Senate.

By an overwhelming vote the revised code of Virginia was yesterday afternoon approved by the house of delegates as amended and passed by the state senate. On a roll call, the result of which was decisive, the opponents of the railway crossing section were defeated, and all other revisions were then accepted without contest. The code now goes to the printer and binder and will be ready for distribution as soon as possible.

Early in the afternoon the bill to abolish the office of state prohibition commissioner was reached. It came up on its second reading. Delegate I. P. Jones, of Richmond, moved to pass it by for the present. The motion was adopted. The house also voted, on motion, to pass by the motion picture censorship bill, which came next in order. Absence of members interested in these two measures was the apparent reason for deferring the vote on their advancement. Patrons of the bill to abolish the office of the Rev. J. Sidney Peters, prohibition commissioner, are Messrs. Deane Hundley, Miller, R. H. Stubbs and Gordon. Delegate Jones is patron of the "movie" censorship bill.

ENDS LIFE WITH BULLET.

Young Wife, Failing in Use of Poison, Shoots Herself Dead.

Charlottesville, Va., Feb. 26.—Following domestic trouble, Mrs. Ethel Walton, aged 26, wife of S. J. Walton, of Windsor, committed suicide early yesterday by shooting herself through the heart. She had attempted to end her life by drinking crude carbolic acid, but a doctor from Ivy pumped out the poison.

The bullet was fired during temporary absence from the room of her husband. Mrs. Walton was married nine years ago. Five children survive, the youngest being only two months old.

EXPLOSION WRECKS HOME.

Gas Blows Off Roof And Otherwise Damages J. W. Shoeman's House.

Grafton, W. Va., Feb. 26.—The home of J. W. Shoeman, 405 Francis street, was badly damaged by a gas explosion late Saturday.

The gas accumulated in the bath room through sewer pipes. When Shoeman's son, five years old, entered the room an explosion blew out every window in the house. The roof was raised and the walls sprung.

GERMANY'S NEW OFFER

Count von Hertling's Conciliatory Speech on Wilson's Peace Terms.—A New Drive.

Germany is making a new peace drive now that she has bagged a goodly section of Russia.

That was the meaning international experts placed today on the more conciliatory tone adopted by Count von Hertling in his reply to President Wilson's peace terms note.

And, further, some of the experts saw an effort by Hertling to split the allies, relying upon them to have differing views as to siding with President Wilson in his four cardinal bases for peace discussion.

The chancellor's acceptance of the four principles was regarded as indicating his belief that a peace table discussion would not haggle over Russia long, if French, Belgian, Italian and some Balkan questions could be adjusted.

In fact, it was felt that Hertling's move harked back to Lloyd George's initial war aims speech in which he practically cast Russia adrift, warning her that she would be left to her fate at German hands if she continued in her peace course.

What President Wilson will do was something no one here could positively fathom today. That he will make some rejoinder is likely, however, but it is a question whether he will yield to Hertling's suggestion that the other nations must accept and express the four cardinal Wilsonian bases.

Hertling subtly appealed to the pacifists of the allied countries to join in pressure on their governments for a statement coinciding with Wilson's

There can be no mistaking that Germany wants peace, but a peace advantageous to herself. She has not altered her imperialistic aims, and the military party is still in power.

THE NINTH DISTRICT.

Peace Offer, Said to Have Been Made, Not Favorably Received.

What will the politicians in the Ninth district do this year? For several days there have been reports to the effect that a "deal" had been made whereby there would be no contest between the Republicans and the Democrats for the congressional nomination—the Republicans agreeing to "retire" in all others sections on condition that the Democrats keep hands off the Ninth. Whether or not this was a "feeler" for the purpose of making a change in representation at this time remains to be seen. It is being hinted that Congressman Slemp is anxious to doff his toga and to take up the management of his private business, but that he will do so only on condition that his successor shall be of his political faith.

If that agreement could be reached is would mean that the nomination of another than Slemp would be possible. But there is another phase of the matter. Since Henry Carter Stuart quitted the office of governor and went back to his home the Democrats in that section have begun to revive the matter of forcing him to make the fight for congress. In case he should get into that contest it means trouble for Mr. Slemp or Mr. Anybody who undertakes to measure lances with him in the political field. A few years ago Mr. Stuart opposed Mr. Slemp, reducing his majority from many thousands to a few hundred. That was a jolt to the Republicans, and they do not care to have to make another fight of the same character.

DEFEATS PRO-GERMANS.

Spain Retains Liberals in Power. Disturbances and Riots in Cities.

Madrid, Sunday, Feb. 26.—General elections were held throughout Spain Sunday. The liberals appear to have maintained their position, although complete returns have not been received. Republicans carried Madrid and Valencia and the Catalanista were victorious at Barcelona.

Disturbances are reported from Valencia and Merida and rioting at Alemeria, Cadiz and Montril. At Madrid an airplane used by the Maurist conservatives in a publicity stunt fell. The pilot was hurt severely and the machine demolished.

Everywhere the Germanophile candidates appear to have been defeated. They polled only a thousand votes in Madrid.

NEEDED IMPROVEMENTS.

The City Council will hold a regular meeting tonight. The committees on police and finance, which recently held a joint session with the Board of Police Commissioners, are expected to make a report recommending an increase of ten dollars per month in the salaries of the officers and members of the police force. This matter has been before Council for some time, and it is generally conceded that the time has come when the pay of the members of the police force should be increased. They now receive sixty-five dollars per month, but in view of the fact that everything that enters into human existence has doubled in price, these public servants should receive salaries sufficient to enable them to meet the obligations of life.

Alexandria is now facing a time when street improvements are absolutely necessary. The location in this city of the plant of the Virginia Shipbuilding Corporation has brought about great activity to the extreme southeastern section of our city. Suitable streets are needed at once for the greatly increased travel now made upon south Royal, Fairfax and Lee streets. The company is now engaged in constructing a road on Lee street from Jefferson to South streets for the accommodation of trucks and wagons which are being used in preparing the reclaimed Baptising Cove for their purposes. The city has furnished broken stone and other materials for this work. The shipbuilding company has greatly improved the roadway and constructed gutters on both sides of the thoroughfare.

Royal street from Wilkes to South street (Hunting Creek) will soon demand improvements. The shipbuilding company has purchased Jones Point as far west as Fairfax street, and they will eventually want improvements extended to Hunting Creek in order that the officers and employees of the corporation can enjoy the benefit of the electric railway in going to and returning from their plant. The trunk sewer, which now stops a short distance south of Franklin street, will necessarily be extended into Hunting creek.

It will soon be necessary to open new streets in Washington Park into which the Alexandria Water Company will lay pipes after the grades shall have been given by the City Engineer.

WAS IT THE HARBINGER OF SPRING?

According to "weather prophets," the first thunder and lightning in the latter part of February or the beginning of March awakens the snakes and bring shad and herring into the river. If this theory be correct, ophidians will soon be moving and the fishing section will be on, as this section was visited at an early hour this morning by nearly all the elements. There were copious rainfalls, high winds and thunder and lightning, followed by clearing weather and a decided drop in the temperature.

While cold snaps are likely to occur during the next forty or fifty days, it be may be assured that the severe winter of 1917-1918 is about to become a thing of the past.

Ice in all the creeks and inlets that empty into the Potomac river and Chesapeake Bay is going out with a rush, releasing a large fleet of trading boats that for weeks have been held in leash by the storm king, and the story goes that these boats are said to be loaded with eggs, poultry, oysters and other choice edibles which will soon be on the market.

The Norfolk and Washington steamboat company announces that in consequence of traffic conditions assuming a normal state on the river, regular runs of steamers of its line are being made to Norfolk without difficulty, and travel has increased very materially within the last day or so.

CAN YOU FURNISH NAMES

The Name of Every Man is Wanted Who has Enlisted or has Been Drafted from Alexandria.

The Gazette recently published the article appearing herewith containing a list of those who have entered the service of Uncle Sam either in the army or navy from Alexandria and vicinity, but as only a few names have been added and it is believed there are many more that should be sent in, the list is again published, with the request that the friends and relatives of any of the men whose names are not in the list see that they are sent in promptly

The Home Service Committee of the local chapter of the American Red Cross is endeavoring to compile a complete list of all men in the service, both army and navy, other than commissioned officers, who have enlisted or have been drafted from Alexandria.

The following list includes all the names they have been able to secure of men enlisted from Alexandria and those drafted through the Alexandria Draft Board. This list is known to be incomplete and is published for the purpose of having friends of those omitted furnish their names to Miss M. L. Whitall, 112 Rosemont Avenue, or Mr. J. T. Preston, Secretary, Chamber of Commerce.

RUSSIA STILL HOPEFUL.

Red Guards and Workers Will Rally And Make Stand Against Invaders.

Amsterdam, Feb. 26.—Still hopeful that the red guards and the workers will rally to a real stand in face of the threatened catastrophe, the Bolshevik government has named a military dictator. Unlimited powers have been given Gen. Brujewitch, hitherto assistant to Ensign Krylenko. The latter has been removed as Bolshevik generalissimo, for the reason, it is believed, that he despaired of all chances to save the capital.

Incensed over Krylenko's pessimistic account at the last meeting of the soviets' executive council, a Socialist tried to kill him. Krylenko was wounded in the arm by a bullet. The would-be assassin was arrested. To Gen. Brujewitch now falls the duty of speedily bringing order out of the chaos and organize the defense of Petrograd.
